

RODD

RODD is a minimalist wall-mounted shelving system designed by Ukrainian designer Max Voytenko. Created with flexibility, precision, and clarity of form in mind, it offers a refined balance of function and aesthetic. Each shelf is crafted entirely from solid oak and suspended on profiled steel rods. Mounted to discreet wall rails, the system allows effortless repositioning and reconfiguration of the shelves — without damaging the wall. RODD is pure form, natural material, and modular freedom to compose your own spatial rhythm
